The Counselor's of Real Estate's "Developing The Future City"

11.20.19 | Seminar

Venue: Cox Castle Nicholson Office, Irvine, California

David Waite will be speaking at CRE's "Developing the Future of the City" luncheon. David is regarded as one of the top real estate attorneys in Southern California. His knowledge of land use, natural resources and environmental law is sure to provide some unique perspective on how cities are likely to grow and evolve. Networking opportunities and great food will compliment David's stimulating presentation.

This event will take place on November 20, 2019 at The Cox Castle Nicholson office in Irvine, California.
