

News & Publications

State Tries To Ease Process To Clean Energy

11.28.08 | News
Daily Journal

Anne Mudge provided commentary for an article discussing the recently signed executive order by the state Governor which attempts to streamline the permitting process of renewable energy projects by fostering more collaboration between the state's energy and environmental agencies.

Related Professionals

Anne E. Mudge

Related Practice Areas

Environmental